

"Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it." (Proverbs 22.6)

Etiquette Workshops

Common Courtesies® workshops for children and teens focus on skills to help them succeed in the classroom, at home, with peers--in life! Application of these skills leads to increased opportunities, greater confidence and improved self-esteem. These highly interactive, informative workshops include role playing activities and instructive materials.

Studies have shown that children seem more receptive to etiquette instruction when it comes from a non-parental figure.
