

350th Anniversary of Bergen, now Hudson County

The Hudson County History Advocates* are seeking the families living the longest in Hudson County communities.

Names of Earliest Ancestor/s _____

Arrival Date (Approximate if necessary) _____

Hudson County community in which they settled _____

Address (if known) _____

Name of descendant currently living in same community _____

Relationship to Ancestor _____

Address _____

Telephone Number _____ Email _____

We will be recognizing those families who have the deepest ties to Hudson County at the History Fair, celebrating the 350th Anniversary of the establishment of Hudson County.

It will be held at Hudson County Community College in the Culinary Arts Institute located at 161 Newkirk St. on October 9, 2010. A roster will be made listing the names of the earliest ancestors, the current descendants with family relationship defined (e.g, great-great-granddaughter), the year & municipality in which they settled.

(No other personal information will be made public.)

*The Hudson County History Advocates is comprised of representatives from the the Embankment Preservation Coalition, the Hudson County Department of Tourism, the Historic Jersey City Harsimus Cemetery, the Hudson County Genealogical Society, the Jersey City Free Public Library, the Jersey City Landmarks Conservancy, and New Jersey City University. If you need assistance in determining the extent of your family's time in Hudson County, contact the NJ Room of the Jersey City Free Public Library at 201-547-4503 or the Hudson County Genealogical Society at their website at <http://www.hudsoncountynjgenealogy.org/>.