

August Films

Wednesdays at 1 PM

August 4

Easy Virtue

Breezy adaptation of a Noel Coward play set in the 1920s. A young American woman marries the naïve British heir to a crumbling estate. Starring Jessica Biel and Ben Barnes. (2008). Rated PG-13. 1 hour, 37 mins.

August 11

Did You Hear about the Morgans?

In this romantic comedy, a separated husband and wife from New York witness a murder and are put into a witness protection program in small-town Wyoming. Starring Sara Jessica Parker and Hugh Grant. (2009). Rated PG-13. 1 hour, 43 mins.

August 18

Invictus

Uplifting film from director Clint Eastwood. After he is elected president of South Africa, Nelson Mandela chooses a unique method to achieve reconciliation within the racially-divided country: He encourages the national rugby team to win the World Cup & become an example of reconciliation in action. Starring Morgan Freeman & Mat Damon. (2009). Rated PG-13. 2 hours, 14 mins.

August 25

Extraordinary Measures

Moving, suspenseful family drama based on a true story. The father of two children facing death from a rare disease & a rogue scientist join forces to raise $100 million to fund the scientist's research into a cure for the disease. Starring Harrison Ford, Brendan Fraser, & Keri Russell. (2010). Rated PG. 1 hour, 46 mins.

The Five Corners Branch Library

678 Newark Avenue, Jersey City, NJ 07306

201-547-4543

www.jclibrary.org

Jersey City Free Public Library - 2010